

④ “LE DOIGT DE JEAN BART”, THE REFERENCE OF THE DUKIRK TEAROOMS

The Dunkirk people have known about this gastronomic delight since early childhood. Furthermore, did you know that the Doigt de Jean Bart has been around since 1957? Since this date the Vandewalle patisserie – Aux doigts de Jean Bart, has been the only producer of it: registered trademarks and brands! This almond coffee cream biscuit wrapped in milk chocolate is a delight!

Aux Doigts de Jean Bart - 6 rue du Sud - 59140 Dunkerque
Contact: +33 (0)3 28 66 72 78 - www.auxdoigtsdejeanbart.com
Closed on Monday and Tuesday.

⑤ “LES AUBETTES” FISH MARKETS

Little fish market on one of the main squares in Dunkirk.
A must-see for fans of fish. You will find different fish and even Dunkirk mussels, fresh out of the sea, quality and freshness guaranteed. You can see the fishing boats return.
Aubettes – Place du Minck – 59140 Dunkerque.

⑥ “LES 3 BRASSEURS”

You will never see brewer's yeast in Les 3 Brasseurs. Yet you will find beer there, in copious amounts. The secret? It's made on site, in front of your eyes! Try the savoury and sweet flammekuchens or the specialities of the chef like the Welsh des 3 Brasseurs with chips, in this lively atmosphere with a wood décor and red leather seats.
